LETTER FROM THE NAHL COMMISSIONER

Welcome to the annual NA3HL Showcase here in Blaine, Minnesota. After a season in which the NAHL Showcase was put on hold for a year, we are excited to return in 2021 as we continue to raise the bar and set the standard of the event. We are excited that we have combined this year's NA3HL Showcase with another great NAPHL event to make this weekend a spectacular six days of exposure. We are thrilled to be celebrating this grand-scale event with all of our teams, players, parents, fans, scouts, partners, and volunteers, and thank you for your support of the NA3HL and NAPHL.

What a year and a half it has been! I can't begin to thank the NA3HL teams, owners, players, and staffs enough for the way they have handled and navigated through the past two seasons. The fact that we made it through a full regular season and playoffs in 2020-21 is a testament to how invested the owners are to the players and their respective communities.

The NA3HL is currently in the middle of a wonderful period of growth and advancement. No other league of its kind has had more movement and advanced more players onto play in the NAHL than the NA3HL. Thanks to additional and enhanced initiatives that were put in place a few years ago in cooperation with the NAHL, we have seen more players from the NA3HL play, practice, and earn NCAA Division I scholarships with the NAHL than any other league.

The 2021-22 season has been an incredible one so far for NA3HL players advancement to the NAHL, with over two dozen players getting the call up so far this season. In addition, not only did 35 NA3HL players sign tenders to play in the NAHL for the 2021-22 season, but 21 more players were selected in the 2021 NAHL Draft.

The NA3HL events are a big part of the league's successful exposure model, which includes this week's NA3HL Showcase here in Blaine, Minnesota, the NA3HL Top Prospects Tournament in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on February 7-8, 2022, and the NA3HL Fraser Cup Championship Tournament, held from March 24-28, 2022, in St. Peters, Missouri.

The NAPHL is bigger and better than ever. We are excited about offering competitive Tier I and Tier II hockey at the USA Hockey youth 18U, 16U, 15U, and 14U levels. The NAPHL has also enjoyed a record-breaking amount of advancement to the NAHL and beyond. No other USA Hockey Midget Tier I league has had more players play in the NAHL over the course of the last three seasons than the NAPHL.

We are continually taking steps to increase those advancement numbers each season and provide an additional development path and enhanced experience for those players in the NA3HL and the NAPHL. We all share in the common mission of creating an enhanced level of play and competition that is focused on a player's development and advancement.

This is truly a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for players to develop, grow and mature so that they may become better hockey players and better people. We continue to ensure that the competition and league-wide events remain at the highest level, while also maintaining a focus on educating our players about NCAA compliance and the importance of education.

Put it all together and it becomes clear that we are providing a first-class environment designed to enhance the experience and opportunities of hockey players as they continue to pursue their goals on the ice and in the classroom.

Thank you for your support of the NA3HL and NAPHL and enjoy the weekend!

SEMINAR: THE PATH TO COLLEGE HOCKEY

In an effort to provide more opportunity to NA3HL players in Blaine during the Showcase, the NA3HL has once again tasked Tony Zasowski and Craig Barnett to present a NCAA Compliance and Education seminar. The 45-minute presentation scheduled for Tuesday, December 21st will be located in the Grand Hall of the National Sports Center located in the building directly to the right of the Schwan Super Rink.

Zasowski is the Director of Player Personnel and Barnett is the Director of NCAA Compliance and Education for the NAHL, NA3HL, and NAPHL. Both gentlemen bring a wealth of knowledge and information that they will share during these seminars along with updates since last year.

The Education and Compliance seminar will cover several topics that are important for a hockey player and family with NCAA aspirations. The focus will be on differences between NCAA Division I, Division III and the ACHA, the breakdown of new NCAA I conference landscape, NCAA Initial Eligibility information including important new rules and how future players will be affected, the recruiting process and how to market yourself.

In addition to the NCAA presentation, Director of Officiating Keith Kaval will discuss Player Safety and rules for this season and Scott Grey will talk about USA Hockey SafeSport.

There will be time at the end of each session for a Q&A. We appreciate your support with these seminars and expect the information to be very valuable to your players. In addition to all teams having to attend, parents and coaches are invited to attend.

NA3HL Advancement Continues to Climb in NAHL and College Hockey

Currently in its 12th season, the North American 3 Hockey League (NA3HL) continues to lead the way for player advancement and development to the NAHL and college hockey.

No other league has had more movement and advanced more players onto play in the NAHL than the NA3HL. Thanks to additional and enhanced initiatives that have been in place for the past few years in cooperation with the NAHL, more players from the NA3HL play, practice, and earn NCAA Division I scholarships with the NAHL than any other league.

This past season not only did 35 NA3HL players sign tenders to play in the NAHL for the 2021-22 season, but 21 more players were selected in the 2021 NAHL Draft. The NA3HL is the only league that has an exclusive NAHL tendering system available only to NA3HL players. The tendering and draft pick process selections play a big part in the eventual advancement of players each season.

During the 2021-22 season, over 60+ NA3HL alumni are currently playing in the NAHL. This season has seen more than two dozen NA3HL players called up to the NAHL since the start of the season.

“A big part of our success lies within the NAHL family of leagues, which includes NA3HL. Each year we experience more in season movement and more advancement up the ladder of development than the year before and 2021 was no different,” said NAHL Commissioner and President Mark Frankenfeld. “The enhanced development and advancement initiatives put in place a few years ago has increased the numbers and have provided an additional development path and enhanced experience for those players in the NA3HL. We all share in the common mission of creating an enhanced level of play and competition that is focused on a player’s development and advancement. We also share common goal for players to advance to college hockey while competing and developing in within USA Hockey Ladder of Development.”

“The NA3HL had another tremendous season of player advancement and development. We continue to see the benefits of the relationship with the NAHL and we continue to see the direct and immediate benefits of the development and advancement initiatives we put in place a few years ago. NA3HL players are getting called up, affiliated, and practicing on a regular basis with NAHL teams and we have seen so much interaction with the two leagues that it has built momentum to lead into what took place during the NAHL Draft,” said NA3HL Commissioner Blake Macnicol.

As part of the enhanced initiatives that have now been in place for multiple seasons, all NAHL teams engaged and worked in cooperation with NA3HL teams for increased access to players, including allowing NA3HL players to practice with NAHL teams during the season. The program created additional dialogue between NAHL and NA3HL teams to find prospects and provide them an in-season opportunity for NAHL experience and evaluation. Its direct benefits are resulted in one-of-a-kind opportunities not found anywhere else in USA Hockey-sanctioned junior hockey.

The NA3HL also continues to make its mark and is one of the leaders in junior hockey with the advancement of players onto the NCAA. In 2021, the NA3HL had over 100+ college commitments, with almost 70% of those being NCAA commitments. In addition, over 300 former NA3HL players are currently playing in the NCAA, and 13% of NCAA Division III freshmen this season previously played in the NA3HL.

The NA3HL also saw nine of its former players, who went onto play in the NAHL, make NCAA Division I commitments the past year. This season alone seen three former players who played in the NA3HL and then went onto the NAHL, make NCAA Division I commitments.

Former NA3HL Rookie of the Year Lucas Wahlin, who played for the North Iowa Bulls and then the Kenai River Brown Bears in the NAHL, recently announced his commitment to the University of St. Thomas. Former St. Louis Jr. Blues defenseman Blake Dangos, who went onto to play two seasons in the NAHL for Janesville Jets, recently committed to Arizona State. Shreveport Mudbugs defenseman Davis Goukler, who made his junior hockey debut in the NA3HL, recently committed to Alaska-Anchorage.

“Everyone develops at a different pace. What is important is the opportunity that we are providing for these young men. Some will go onto the NAHL, some will go onto the NCAA, and other will chose the ACHA. Put it all together and it becomes clear that we are providing a first-class environment designed to enhance the experience and opportunities of hockey players as they continue to pursue their goals on the ice and in the classroom,” said Frankenfeld.

NA3HL TOP PROSPECTS HEADING TO PITTSBURGH

The North American 3 Hockey League (NA3HL) has announced the location and date for the 2022 NA3HL Top Prospects Tournament, which will be held from February 7-8, 2022 at the UPMC Lemieux Sports Complex in Cranberry Township, Pennsylvania. The UPMC Lemieux Sports Complex is the practice home to the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins.

The event will be played in cooperation with the 2022 NAHL Top Prospects Tournament. The event has quickly become one of the most highly-scouted events of its kind, with hundreds of junior, NCAA and NHL expected in attendance this season. 88 total players from the NA3HL will be spread amongst four teams who will play in two games each during the event. Each of the teams will consist of a 22-man roster (13 forwards, 7 defensemen, 2 goaltenders).

"The NA3HL and its member teams share the common goal of creating an enhanced level of play and competition that is focused on a player's development and advancement," said NA3HL Commissioner Blake Macnicol. "This provides a great opportunity for 88 of the best players in the NA3HL to not only play in front of hundreds of NCAA scouts, but also all 29 NAHL head coaches and teams."

The NA3HL Top Prospects Tournament is another great example of the cooperative relationship and ladder of development between the NA3HL and NAHL. The fact remains that when it comes to Tier III junior leagues, no other league has had more movement and advanced more players onto play in the NAHL than the NA3HL. Through the NAHL's vast resources for development and exposure, like the annual Top Prospects Tournament, the NA3HL provides a worthy path for players to grow, on and off the ice, while being showcased in front of the entire junior, college and professional scouting community.

The NA3HL is in its 12th season in 2021-22 and serves as one of the top training grounds in the country by providing the best coaching, exposure and developmental vehicles available for student-athletes in Tier III junior hockey. It is one of only two USA Hockey-sanctioned Tier III junior leagues. No other league of its kind has had more movement and advanced more players onto play in the North American Hockey League (NAHL) than the NA3HL. Thanks to additional and enhanced initiatives in cooperation with the NAHL put in place several years ago, more players from the NA3HL play, practice, and earn NCAA Division I scholarships with the NAHL than any other league.

The Top Prospects of the NA3HL will be meeting up in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in February.

The UPMC Lemieux Sports Complex is the primary practice and training facility for the Pittsburgh Penguins as well as a comprehensive outpatient facility for UPMC Sports Medicine. This first-of-its-kind facility in the Pittsburgh region is a true partnership between two world-class organizations, and features 185,000 square feet of total space dedicated to treating, training and inspiring athletes at every level. This multi-use facility is a destination for athletes of all ages and skill levels seeking sports medicine, performance, and rehabilitation expertise as well as hockey-specific skills and performance training. UPMC Lemieux Sports Complex has hosted prominent events such as the NHL's Kraft Hockeyville Game, USHL's Fall Classic, NWHL regular-season games and All-Star weekend, as well as USA Hockey National Championships and tournaments.

NORTH AMERICAN 3 HOCKEY LEAGUE

NORTH AMERICAN
3HL

OUR HISTORY

Celebrating its 12th season in 2021-22, the North American 3 Hockey League (NA3HL), one of two USA Hockey-sanctioned Tier III Junior leagues, serves as one of the top training grounds in the country by providing the best coaching, exposure and developmental vehicles available for student-athletes in its classification.

The primary mission of the NA3HL, which is managed organizationally by the NAHL, is to provide a structured developmental environment for student-athletes whose youth options are limited but are still reaching their potential and have aspirations of playing in the NAHL or United States Hockey League (USHL) and eventually the NCAA or American Collegiate Hockey Association (ACHA).

ON THE RISE

No other league has had more movement and advanced more players onto play in the North American Hockey League (NAHL) than the NA3HL.

Thanks to additional enhanced initiatives that were put in place this season in cooperation with the NAHL, more players from the NA3HL play, practice, and earn NCAA Division I scholarships with the NAHL than any other league. As a result, the NA3HL has continued to make its mark in advancement of players to the NAHL as over 45 NA3HL alumni began the 2021-22 season on NAHL rosters.

The NA3HL is also the only league that has an exclusive NAHL tendering system.

NAPHL Grads Among NAHL's Best This Season

Now in its 13th year, the North American Prospects Hockey League (NAPHL) has a storied tradition of advancing players to the North American Hockey League (NAHL). This season has been another great example of former NAPHL players who have not only advanced to the NAHL, but are making a significant impact. Here is a look at a small sample who are going above and beyond and are standing out this season in the NAHL:

Talon Sigurdson, F, Anchorage Wolverines (NAPHL, 2018-20) – Currently the NAHL's active goal-scoring leader, Anchorage Wolverines forward Talon Sigurdson, 19, continued his torrid goal-scoring pace as was named the Midwest Division Star of the Week for October 11-17, as the Wolverines took two of three games in the home series against Springfield. The 6'2"/180 lbs. native of Sartell, MN, and NAPHL grad, had four goals in the three games. On Friday, he had two goals in a 6-2 win. On Saturday, he scored a goal in a 5-2 loss. On Sunday, he scored another goal in a 4-1 win.

Cal Mell, D, Janesville Jets (NAPHL, 2017-18) - Janesville Jets defenseman Cal Mell, 20, helped his team stay in the thick of the playoff race in the Midwest Division as was named NAHL Defensesman of the Month in November. The 5'10"/180 lbs. native of Cumming, GA, had 10 points in nine games played during the month. His 10 points were tops among all NAHL defensemen and he was also a +8 during the month. Mell, who is also an NAPHL grad, had three multi-point games and has recorded at least a point in six of his last seven games.

Ethan Roberts, G, Springfield Jr. Blues (NAPHL, 2018-19) - Springfield Jr. Blues goalie and NAPHL grad Ethan Roberts, 19, was named the Midwest Division Star of the Week for November 29-December 5, as he helped his team to a two-game sweep of the Janesville Jets. The 6'1"/180 lbs. native of Cary, NC stopped 83 of 86 shots in the two games and scored a goal. On Friday, Roberts stopped all 36 shots that came his way for his second shutout of the season in a 4-0 win. On Saturday, he made 47 saves in a 6-3 win and was also credited with an empty-net goal as he made a save and was the last Jr. Blues player to touch the puck before it went down the ice and into the empty-net.

Clay Allen, D, Anchorage Wolverines (NAPHL, 2017-20) - Anchorage defenseman and NAPHL grad Clay Allen, 19, was named Midwest Division Star of the Week for November 8-14, helping his team to a weekend home sweep of the Kenai River Brown Bears. The 6'2"/180 lbs.

native of Anchorage, AK, had four points, which included three goals and an assist. On Friday, Allen scored two goals, including the game-winner, and added an assist in a 6-2 win. On Saturday, he scored his second straight game-winning goal in a 4-1 win.

Hunter Garvey, G, North Iowa Bulls (NAPHL, 2019-20) - North Iowa Bulls goalie Hunter Garvey, 19, was named the Central Division Star of the Week for November 8-14, leading his team to a weekend home-and-home sweep of the Austin Bruins to move into 1st place in the Central Division. The 6'1/160 lbs. native of San Diego, CA, stopped 64 of 69 shots in the two wins. On Friday, Garvey made 33 saves through regulation and OT, then stopped three of four shooters in the shootout in a 3-2 shootout win. On Saturday, he made 31 saves in a 5-3 win.

Huston Karpman, F, Minot Minotauros (NAPHL, 2017-18) – Minot forward and NAPHL grad Huston Karpman has committed to play NCAA Division I hockey for the University of Connecticut Huskies in Hockey East. The announcement comes on the same day that Karpman was announced as the NAHL Forward of the Month for October on the strength of his eight goals and eight assists in nine games during the month.

Dylan Wegner, F, Maryland Black Bears (NAPHL, 2018-19) – Maryland forward Dylan Wegner has committed to play NCAA Division I hockey for Michigan State University in the B1G. Wegner, 17, is in his first season of playing junior hockey in the NAHL. Prior to playing in the NAHL, Wegner played his youth hockey for the Bishop Kearney Selects, the Selects Academy, and the Nashville Jr. Predators. While with Nashville, Wegner played in the NAPHL during the 2018-19 season for the Predators 16U team, where he posted three points in eight NAPHL games that season.
