OUR HISTORY

Celebrating its 14th season in 2022-23, the North American Prospects Hockey League (NAPHL) is made up of three Leagues: T1ER League (Tier 1), SHOW League (Tier I/ II), and the FALL League (September / October Season).

The NAPHL has established itself as one of the premier grounds for development and exposure. The success of teams on the National stage, as well as the success of NAPHL players at the next levels of hockey, is further proof that the NAPHL is redefining exposure and has elevated itself to one of the premier training grounds for development and opportunity.

In the last three years, no other USA Hockey Midget Tier I league has had more players play in the NAHL than the NAPHL

The North American Hockey League is running on all cylinders as we enter December. Teams are jockeying for positioning while players chase college commitments.

As tender season is officially one month old, let's take a look at some of the players that were in this exact spot in their hockey careers that would go on to sign a tender with a NAHL club and be a key part of the roster this season.

Emerson Goode - Odessa Jackalopes: From Anaheim, California, Goode spent the 2020-21 season with the Meijer AAA (now Biggby Coffee AAA) 18U team. In 16 regular season games, Goode racked up seven goals and 17 points. In the playoffs, Goode took his game to a new level, scoring three times and finishing with six points in the four game Dixon Cup. He spent the 2021-22 season in Odessa with the Jackalopes where he potted 12 goals and 28 points in 50 games. He committed to Ferris State University and is currently finishing his final year of junior hockey in Odessa where he's netted 12 goals and 15 points in 20 games thus far.

Joseph "JJ" Grainda spent his 18U NAPHL season with the Indy Jr. Fuel. After signing a tender with the Chippewa Steel, he appeared in 59 games during the 2021-22 season, registering 34 points.

Joseph "JJ" Grainda - Chippewa Steel: Grainda played his youth hockey for the Indy Jr. Fuel and spent his 18U season in the NAPHL. The Carmel, Indiana native played in 23 regular season contests, scoring 10 times and ending the year with 16 points. He had six points in three games at the Dixon Cup ultimately signing a tender with the Steel. He took advantage of his opportunity, making the roster out of training camp and appeared in 59 games during his rookie season. He finished tied for second in goals and third in points with 16 and 34, respectively. Through 23 games of the 2022-23 season, Grainda has nine goals and 16 points.

Max Martin - Minot Minotauros: Tawas, Michigan native Max Martin had two stints in the NAPHL. In 2018-19 he was playing with the 15U Biggby Coffee AAA team. He was nearly a point per game player in the regular season with 10 points in 11 games. He put up four points in four games at the 2019 Dixon Cup and even got a call up to play with the 16U team at the Dixon Cup. Scoring twice and logging seven points in four games. Last season he returned to play in 13 total games for Biggby Coffee. He lit the lamp 9 times and had 16 points. He currently is in his first season of junior hockey and is off to hot start with four goals and 12 points in his first 22 games.

Adam Schankula - Maryland Black Bears: The forward from Perrysburg, OH absolutely dominated the 18U T1ER league in 2021-22 as the Tri State Spartan led the league in goals (28) and points (49). He was named to the 18U All-Star Game where he lit the lamp again. Schankula signed a tender with the Maryland Black Bears in December of last year. He made such a good impression, the Black Bears dressed him in 11 games last season. Now a full time member of the club, Schankula has four goals and 13 points through 25 games in the 2022-23 season.

NAPHL ALUMNI RECOGNIZED BY NHL CENTRAL SCOUTING

The influence the NAPHL and its former players are having in the NHL took another big step this week with the release of the 'Prospects to Watch' list for 2023 draft-eligible players, which is created and developed each season by NHL Central Scouting.

It is a preliminary list of players to watch for the 2023 NHL Draft in North America and Europe.

Six former NAPHL players have been recognized on the list.

View the complete list here

The lists, comprised of "A," "B" and "C" players for the upcoming season in each of the major junior hockey leagues, are sent to NHL team scouts for the purpose of tracking the top draft-eligible players entering the 2022-23 season.

The players on the preliminary list with A ratings are considered potential first-round picks. Players with B ratings are considered possible second- or third-round choices, and those with C ratings are potential fourth-, fifth- or sixth-round selections.

Kaden Shahan, who played the last two years in the NAPHL for the Northwest Stars, is one of six NAPHL alumni recognized by NHL Central Scouting.

NAPHL alumni

Gavin Brindley, F, Michigan (NCAA) (Florida Alliance 16U, 2019-20)

Jacob Fowler, G, Youngstown (USHL) (Florida Alliance 16U, 2019-20)

Jack Harvey, F, Chicago (USHL) (Gentry Academy 16U/15U, 2018-20)

Thomas Kieseewetter, G, Corpus Christi IceRays (NAHL) (Maine Nordiques 18U, 2021-22)

Zach Nehring, F, Shattuck-St. Mary's Prep (Shattuck-St. Mary's 18U, 2020-21)

Kaden Shahan, F, Sioux City (USHL) (Northwest Stars 18U/16U, 2020-22)

This past summer, nine players with NAPHL ties were selected in the 2022 NHL Entry Draft, which was held on July 7-8 at the Bell Centre in Montreal, Quebec, and hosted by the Montreal Canadiens.

The nine NAPHL players taken in the 2022 NHL Draft was an all-time record for the NAPHL. It was yet another benchmark moment for the NAPHL, which is currently in its 14th season in 2022-23 with teams at the 18U, 16U, 15U, and 14U USA Hockey Tier I and Tier II youth levels. The success of teams on the National stage, as well as, the success of NAPHL players at the next levels of hockey, is further proof that the NAPHL is redefining exposure and has elevated itself to one of the premier training grounds for development and opportunity.
