OUR HISTORY

Celebrating its 14th season in 2022-23, the North American Prospects Hockey League (NAPHL) is made up of three Leagues: T1ER League (Tier 1), SHOW League (Tier I/ II), and the FALL League (September / October Season).

The NAPHL has established itself as one of the premier grounds for development and exposure. The success of teams on the National stage, as well as the success of NAPHL players at the next levels of hockey, is further proof that the NAPHL is redefining exposure and has elevated itself to one of the premier training grounds for development and opportunity.

In the last three years, no other USA Hockey Midget Tier I league has had more players play in the NAHL than the NAPHL

T1ER 18U and 16U Games

All 18 organizations within the T1ER League at the 18U and 16U age levels will be in Michigan this weekend, showcasing their skills in front of dozens of junior and college scouts. The event is held in conjunction with the USA Hockey Biosteel All-American Game being held on January 16th at 4pm at USA Hockey Arena in Plymouth. With the addition of that marquee event, NHL scouts will also be in the area this weekend, getting a look at the top talent the NAPHL T1ER league has to offer. To date, 34 players in the T1ER league have signed tenders with clubs in the North American Hockey League (NAHL). You can see who has signed where on the next page and learn about the successes former NAPHL players are having not only at the NAHL but higher levels of hockey in the pages to follow.

SHOW National Division Finals

It's the final weekend of the season for the SHOW League national division teams. After events in Frisco, Philadelphia and Blaine it all comes down to this final weekend here in Michigan. Not only is it a big a weekend for teams in the standings but this is also the final chance for players to make a good impression on the many scouts that will be in the building. Every North American 3 Hockey League (NA3HL) team will be in attendance this weekend as it also the Pre-NA3HL Tender Distribution event. Meaning NA3HL teams will soon be able to start signing players for the 2023-2024 season.

What is a tender?

A tender is a contract, of sorts, a player signs announcing his intentions to play for the particular NAHL team and that NAHL team only. Once a player signs a tender with an NAHL team, his playing rights belong to that team within the NAHL and he may not be recruited by any other NAHL team. Each team is granted ten (10) tenders - plus or minus any trades - which became active on November 1, 2022. Tendered players are not eligible for the 2023 NAHL Draft.

As the North American Hockey League season reaches the midway point of the 2022-23 season, the top players in the league are starting to separate themselves from the middle of the pack. NAPHL alums find themselves up and down the NAHL leader board in points with the following names ranked inside the top 30.

Branden Piku - Maryland Black Bears: Branden Piku made a name for himself during the 2018-19 NAPHL season with the Meijer AAA (now Biggby Coffee AAA program) as his “Michigan” goal during the NAHL Showcase got him on Sportscenter. In 2020, the Michigan native burst into the NAHL with the Maryland Black Bears. He scored six goals and 13 points in 28 games his rookie season. In his first full year with the club, he was nearly a point-per-game player as he notched 18 goals and 50 points in 57 contests. In his third and final junior season, Piku has lit the lamp 11 times and has 25 points through 22 games this year.

Current Anchorage Wolverine forward and NAPHL alum Aiden Westin is currently tied for second in the NAHL with 36 points.

Jake LaRusso - Northeast Generals: The native Colts Neck, New Jersey has had a long NAHL career after playing his 15U season with the New Jersey Jr. Titans. The forward dominated his time in the NAPHL as in 12 total games, he scored 14 goals and had 28 points. LaRusso has appeared in the NAHL the last five seasons, spending most of his time in New Jersey with the Titans, he spent time with the North Iowa Bulls last season and started this year there before being traded to the Northeast Generals. LaRusso had 27 goals and 69 points in 124 career games with the Titans. He grabbed another seven goals and 25 points in 44 games with the Bulls before finding his stride this year with the Generals. In just 24 games with his new team, the veteran forward has 18 goals and 33 points, placing him in second for goals and tied for fourth in points in the entire league. In total, LaRusso has appeared in 192 NAHL games and has logged 54 goals and 127 points.

Jackson Reineke - Anchorage Wolverines: From Fairbault, Minnesota, Jackson Reineke spent parts of four seasons in the NAPHL. He played with the 16U team as a 15 year old back in 2017-18. He then played for the 18U team for the next three seasons, finishing his youth career with 21 goals and 44 points in 67 total games. He would be on the roster for the inaugural Anchorage Wolverines team that went all the way to the Robertson Cup National Championship, with Reineke scoring the overtime winner in their semifinal series against the St. Cloud Norsemen. To date, the forward has appeared in 84 NAHL games, potting 23 goals and 64 points.

Aiden Westin - Anchorage Wolverines: Anchorage native Aiden Westin spent three years in the NAPHL before breaking through into the NAHL. The forward racked up 21 goals and 60 points in 56 games. He was sensational for the Wolverines in his first junior season as his 51 points ranked third on the club. In his final junior season, he's been even better as he currently ranks tied for second in the NAHL with 36 points in just 30 games. His 16 goals are tied for 6th most in the league.

T1ER GEARING UP FOR FINAL EVENT BEFORE DIXON CUP

18U

The Philadelphia Little Flyers lead the T1ER standings with 31 points as they are 10-1-1 through 12 games this season. They have a small lead in the East Division as New Jersey and Maine are both 8-4 on the year.

In the Central Division the Esmark Stars are a perfect 8-0 this season but are tied with CarShield AAA who are 7-0-1, both teams have 22 points in the T1ER three point system. Tri State is in third place in the Central with a 7-1 record, good for 20 points.

In the West Division, Team Alaska leads the way with a 9-3 record and 26 points. The Colorado Springs Tigers are 7-4-1 with 21 points with the Northwest Stars rounding out the top three with 18 points.

Maryland Black Bears tender and Esmark Stars forward Brody Simko leads the T1ER with 21 points in just eight games. He is second in the league with 14 goals. Bismarck Bobcats tender and Omaha Mastery forward Gabe Kenne is league leader in goals with 15 in just eight contests.

Philly Little Flyers goaltender Michael Manzi has been dominating so far this season as in 6 games he has a record of 5-0-1. An incredible 0.54 goals against average and a league leading .974 save percentage and three shutouts. Esmark's Peter Baldwin is perfect so far this year with a 3-0 record in 4 appearances. His GAA comes in at 1.25 with a save percentage of .944 and two shutouts. Look for these two to get plenty of attention from NAHL teams in the near future.

16U

The Philadelphia Hockey Club leads the 16U T1ER league with an 11-1 record and 30 points. It's a log jam near the top as New Jersey, New Hampshire and the Philly Little Flyers have 27, 24 and 23 points respectively.

In the Central Division the Esmark Stars lead the way with a 7-0-1 record and 21 points. The Madison Capitols are right on their heels with a 7-1 record and 20 points. Indy and CarShield have each won five of their last eight games.

Chase Hannon and the Philadelphia Little Flyers sit atop of the T1ER 18U Standings with a 10-1-1 record.

Team Alaska leads the West Division with a 6-6 record and 18 points. Vegas also has a 6-6 record but they only have 17 points.

There's a three way tie for the scoring league at 16U. Sullivan Swiersz of the Maine Nordiques and Aaron VanWie of CarShield AAA each have 11 goals and five assists in just eight games. Marc Nicastro of the Philadelphia Hockey Club has eight goals and eight assists in 12 games.

Hleb Subach of the Esmark Stars is one of the top goaltenders at this age level as he is a perfect 4-0 in four starts. He has allowed just three goals for a GAA of 0.75 and has a sensational save percentage of .967 and a league leading three shutouts. Philadelphia Hockey Club's Daniel Daggett is also a perfect 4-0 on the year. He has allowed four goals in four games and is sporting a .938 save percentage and two shutouts.

Prepare for what's next!

NAPHL ALUMS MAKE DIVISION I COMMITMENTS

David Deputy - Philadelphia Rebels

The Philadelphia Rebels of the North American Hockey League (NAHL) are pleased to announce that forward and NAPHL alum David Deputy has committed to play NCAA Division I hockey for the Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT) in Atlantic Hockey. Deputy, 18, is in his first season of playing junior hockey in the NAHL. The 5'9/161 lbs. native of Gurnee, IL, currently leads the Rebels in scoring thus far during the 2022-23 season with 21 points (9 goals, 12 assists) in 28 games played.

"I am extremely proud and honored to announce my commitment to play division 1 college hockey at RIT. Thank you to my family, friends, coaches, and teammates who have helped me along the way," stated Deputy on social media.

Deputy played in the NAPHL during the 2021-22 season and was a tender of the Rebels. In 26 games during the regular season, Deputy had 25 points for the Reapers Hockey Association 18U team. He also added five points in four Dixon Cup Playoff games. Prior to that he also played for Team Illinois and the Highland Park Falcons of the NAPHL SHOW League.

David Deputy has committed to play NCAA Division I hockey for the Rochester Institute of Technology. He played in the NAPHL from 2020-22 and was tendered by the Rebels last season.

Adam Johnson - Johnstown Tomahawks

The Johnstown Tomahawks of the North American Hockey League (NAHL) are pleased to announce that goaltender Adam Johnson has committed to play NCAA Division I hockey for Lindenwood University.

"Our entire organization is thrilled for Adam on his commitment to Lindenwood University," said Head Coach Mike Letizia. "Since joining our team in early November he has been a great asset on and off the ice. His compete level and passion on the ice as well as his personality in the locker room with the guys has been a very welcome addition to our team."

Since being acquired in November, the 6'3/185 lbs. native of Chicago, Illinois has gone 5-4-0-0 with a 3.63 goals-against average and a 0.874 save percentage. Johnson, 20, had previously played 33 career games with the Danbury Jr. Hat Tricks where he had a 3.88 goals-against average and a 0.899 save percentage over two seasons.

Adam Johnson has committed to play NCAA Division I hockey for Lindenwood University. He played in the NAPHL from 2019-21.

"I am proud and honored to announce my commitment to play NCAA D1 hockey and further my education at Lindenwood University. I want to thank my family, coaches, teammates and friends for all the support and help along the way,” said Johnson on social media.

“Lindenwood is one of the newest DI programs and has continued to build an incredible foundation,” added Letizia.

“Being located in Missouri, and with Adam being from nearby in the Chicago area it was a great geographical fit for him. It was one of the places that he really desired to be at and when you can get that fit on both sides it’s special. I am so happy for him and his family on this next step in his hockey career beginning next season.”

Prior to playing in the NAHL, Johnson spent two seasons of playing youth hockey for Indy Jr. Fuel in the NAPHL. Johnson now joins Gabriel Lunn and Tyler DesRochers on the list of Tomahawks who have made NCAA commitments this season.

Caleb Huffman - Kenai River Brown Bears ════════════

The Kenai River Brown Bears of the North American Hockey League (NAHL) are pleased to announce that defenseman and NAPHL and NA3HL alum Caleb Huffman has committed to play NCAA Division I hockey for the University of Alaska-Anchorage.

Caleb Huffman has committed to play NCAA Division I hockey for the University of Alaska-Anchorage. He played in the NAPHL from 2017-20 and played in the NA3HL prior to the NAHL.

Huffman, 20, is currently in his third and final season of junior hockey, which has been spent between the NAHL and the NA3HL. The 6’4/190 lbs. native of Anchorage, AK, is currently having his best career season to date and has recorded 17 points (5 goals, 12 assists) in 29 games so far during the 2022-23 season.

“Super excited to announce my commitment to play Division 1 hockey at the University of Alaska Anchorage starting next semester! Huge thank you to all my coaches, teammates, friends, and family who helped me along the way,” said Huffman on social media.

Huffman, who is a grad of both the NAPHL and NA3HL, began his junior career with the North Iowa Bulls in the NA3HL during the 2020-21 season. During that season, he recorded 19 points in 25 regular season games and had four points in 10 Fraser Cup Playoff games helping the Bulls to the Fraser Cup Championship. He also made his NAHL debut on March 20, 2021 with the Brown Bears that season. Last season, Huffman played in 55 regular season games and recorded seven points.

Prior to playing in the NAHL and NA3HL, Huffman spent three seasons playing in the NAPHL. During the 2017-18 campaign, Huffman played for the Alaska Oilers 15U team, appearing in 13 games and recording five points. During the 2018-19 season he joined the Meijer AAA (now Biggby Coffee AAA) 16U team, where he had six points in 15 regular season games and two points in five Dixon Cup Playoff games, helping his team to the NAPHL 16U Dixon Cup Championship. In the 2019-20 season, Huffman recorded three points in 13 games played with the Meijer AAA 18U team.

NAPHL ALUMNI RECOGNIZED BY NHL CENTRAL SCOUTING

The influence the NAPHL and its former players are having in the NHL took another big step this week with the release of the 'Prospects to Watch' list for 2023 draft-eligible players, which is created and developed each season by NHL Central Scouting.

It is a preliminary list of players to watch for the 2023 NHL Draft in North America and Europe.

Six former NAPHL players have been recognized on the list.

The lists, comprised of "A," "B" and "C" players for the upcoming season in each of the major junior hockey leagues, are sent to NHL team scouts for the purpose of tracking the top draft-eligible players entering the 2022-23 season.

The players on the preliminary list with A ratings are considered potential first-round picks. Players with B ratings are considered possible second- or third-round choices, and those with C ratings are potential fourth-, fifth- or sixth-round selections.

Kaden Shahan, who played the last two years in the NAPHL for the Northwest Stars, is one of six NAPHL alumni recognized by NHL Central Scouting.

NAPHL Alumni:

Gavin Brindley, F, Michigan (NCAA) (Florida Alliance 16U, 2019-20)

Jacob Fowler, G, Youngstown (USHL) (Florida Alliance 16U, 2019-20)

Jack Harvey, F, Chicago (USHL) (Gentry Academy 16U/15U, 2018-20)

Thomas Kiesewetter, G, Corpus Christi IceRays (NAHL) (Maine Nordiques 18U, 2021-22)

Zach Nehring, F, Shattuck-St. Mary's Prep (Shattuck-St. Mary's 18U, 2020-21)

Kaden Shahan, F, Sioux City (USHL) (Northwest Stars 18U/16U, 2020-22)

This past summer, nine players with NAPHL ties were selected in the 2022 NHL Entry Draft, which was held on July 7-8 at the Bell Centre in Montreal, Quebec, and hosted by the Montreal Canadiens.

The nine NAPHL players taken in the 2022 NHL Draft was an all-time record for the NAPHL. It was yet another benchmark moment for the NAPHL, which is currently in its 14th season in 2022-23 with teams at the 18U, 16U, 15U, and 14U USA Hockey Tier I and Tier II youth levels. The success of teams on the National stage, as well as, the success of NAPHL players at the next levels of hockey, is further proof that the NAPHL is redefining exposure and has elevated itself to one of the premier training grounds for development and opportunity.

PREVIEWING THE NATIONAL DIVISION FINALS

18U

The final weekend of play for the SHOW League National Division teams has arrived. Heading into event, two Chicago teams occupy the top spots in the standings. The Chicago Hawks and the Chicago Jets both sit at 7-1 and have 21 points. The Hawks have won five games in a row after sweeping the weekend in Philadelphia. The Northwest Chargers and Clearwater Ice Storm sit right behind them with 18 points in the standings.

One name to look out for this weekend is the league's leading scorer Kyle Arias of the Orland Park Vikings. He has seven goals and 17 points through eight games this season. He's riding a four game point streak after recording three multi-point efforts in Philadelphia at the beginning of December. John Hall of the Tri State Spartans has been nearly as good as he's potted six goals and 15 points in eight games. The Tri State forward capped off a eight point weekend in Blaine with a four point effort against the Arizona Hockey Union on December 18th. The league's leading goal scorer is also going to get a lot of attention. Robert Bird of St. Mary's has 10 goals in eight games with seven of those tallies coming in Blaine just a month ago.

The Chicago Hawks have seen their success due in part to Brendan Kelly in between the pipes. The netminder is 4-0 with 0.50 goals against average and a .960 save percentage to go with two shutouts. Northwest Chargers goaltender Alexander Conley has been nearly as good with a GAA under one to go with a .959 save percentage and two shutouts of his own.

16U

In the 16U division, two teams remain unbeaten this season as the Chicago Jets sit at 8-0 while the Orland Park Vikings are 7-0. The Texas Tigers have won six games in a row after starting the campaign 0-2. Clearwater and the Chicago Hawks both also have 6-2 records after eight games.

Jake Bamback of the Texas Tigers leads the league with 15 points on the season, eight goals and seven assists. Bamback has help with Bryce Millington and Jack Lubahn on the roster. Millington has 12 points in eight games while

The Chicago Jets rank near the top of the standings at both the 18U and 16U levels.

Lubahn has 10 points in that same span. The leading goal scorer in the league is George Brkljacic of the Clearwater Ice Storm. He came into the Blaine event with just one goal but eight goals in four games has vaulted him to the top of the league. This included a five point effort in the final game of the event.

14U

Then at the 14U level the Dallas Penguins have a commanding lead with an 8-1 record and 24 points. The New Mexico Ice Wolves and Vegas Jr. Golden Knights are each 5-3 this season with 15 and 14 points respectively.

The Penguins own the top scorers leader board with four of the top six scorers. Thomas Kubit leads all players with 18 points over nine games. William Hubbell leads the Penguins with nine goals and is second with 14 points. Bryson Bridges and Ian Hutzler have netted 14 and 13 points respectively. New Mexico has the top two goal scorers in the league as both Johnathan Foster and Jackson Thomas both have 10 goals in eight games this year.

Vegas boasts the top goaltender in the league as Vincent Vitale is 4-2 this season, allowing just five goals in those six games to give him a GAA of 0.83. He also leads the league with a .943 save percentage and three shutouts. Joseph Lackey has been really good for Dallas as he is 5-0 on the year, sporting a goals against of 1.80 and a save percentage of .901 with one shutout.

REGISTRATION FOR 2023 NAHL COMBINES NOW OPEN

The North American Hockey League (NAHL) has announced the dates and locations for the 2023 Combines, which are now open for registration. The NAHL Combines are driven by the North American Hockey League and operated by the NAHL's professional staff in order to serve the most valuable asset to hockey... the players.

The goal is to provide the aspiring hockey player to take part in a one-of-a-kind experience that is designed to maximize exposure at grand-scale events that provide a true look and feel of the genuine NAHL Experience. NAHL Combines are carefully designed to provide an Education, Exposure, and Experience for prospects that strive to advance their hockey development at the junior hockey and college level.

In 2023, there are combines for two different age groups.

Junior (2003 to 2007 birth years): Highlight exposure to scouts and junior coaches - Continue education about proven pathway to NCAA hockey via the NAHL's Ladder of Development - Provide an experience that will help in the player's next steps in pursuit of playing junior hockey.

Prospects (2007 to 2009 birth years): Reinforce education about the proven pathway to the NCAA through junior hockey - Emphasize evaluation and further exposure to NAHL and NA3HL coaches and scouts - Provide a realistic experience of a junior tryout.

Register for NAHL Combines at: nahl.com/combines or scan the code below.

NAHL Combine Locations and Dates

St. Louis, MO – March 24-26

Middletown, NJ – March 31-April 2

Columbus, OH – April 14-16

Anaheim, CA - April 28-30

Attleboro, MA – May 5-7

Education ensures the players are provided knowledge about NCAA compliance and eligibility, recruiting processes, the correct and legitimate path to college hockey, as well as an in-depth look at the three different tiers of junior hockey. This includes seminars that discuss the NAHL junior hockey experience, the ladder of development, as well as NCAA compliance seminars.

Exposure means that players compete in front of junior and college scouts and gain additional exposure through NAHL Central Scouting. With NAHL Tryout Camps and NAHL Drafts taking place from May through July, NAHL Combines are a perfect indicator to evaluate just how ready they are for the next step and receive valuable feedback.

Experience means that players from all over North America and Europe will play multiple games against other NAHL and NCAA hockey prospects with team's coached by staff members from NAHL, NAHL Central Scouting, and NA3HL teams, providing a top notch, professional, and memorable experience.
